

Sheppard Mullin & eTERA Consulting Partner to Deliver Corporate Educational Seminars
Seminars to Focus on Emerging Legal Issues.

WASHINGTON, DC, NOVEMBER 18, 2009----- In an exclusive partnership, Sheppard Mullin and eTERA Consulting recently conducted the first in a series of CLE corporate briefing seminars discussing emerging legal issues under the Obama Administration. The focus of the first session was on understanding and managing cartel investigations in the U.S. and abroad. The panel of experts, including Robert Magielnicki, Donald Klawiter, and Jennifer M. Driscoll-Chippendale, Partners in Sheppard Mullen’s Washington, DC office, Daniel Brown, Partner in Sheppard Mullen’s New York office, and Bob Gillespie, Vice President ESI Consulting, eTERA Consulting, presented the substantive legal issues, as well as the case management and electronic discovery processes, using a detailed hypothetical scenario.

The program will be repeated in New York City during the second week of December, and will be offered by invitation only.

“As Sheppard Mullin's East Coast antitrust practice continues to expand, we are proud to be working with eTERA Consulting--a firm that also values exemplary client service and work product,” said Jennifer Driscoll-Chippendale, Partner, Sheppard Mullin. “Our combined platform provides a seamless approach to managing the substance and logistics of complex transactional and litigation matters, as our seminar series clearly demonstrates.”

“eTERA Consulting is pleased to collaborate with Sheppard Mullin to offer the highest quality in education to our mutual corporate clients,” said Sasha Hefler, Vice President of Global Strategy & Communications for eTERA Consulting. “Our mutual goal is to deliver time-sensitive content to assist clients in dealing with changes in the social and political environments affecting their business decisions.”
